

Carmarthen & The Gower Peninsula

Thursday 26th – Monday 30th July 2018 – 5 Days

5 Days
from £335.00
per person

Travel over breathtaking mountains, through lush green landscapes, secluded, ancient forests, past vast expanses of golden sandy beaches, picturesque rivers and visit stunning locations in this wonderful area.

Our base, The Ivy Bush Royal Hotel, close to Carmarthen town Centre and was once favoured by Lord Nelson and Lady Hamilton.

Rooms have been recently refurbished and have TV, hairdryer, en-suite bathrooms and hospitality tray. There is a gym and sauna and the hotel does have a lift.

Package itinerary

THURSDAY Travel to South Wales with suitable refreshment stops en-route, arriving at the hotel in time for the evening meal.

INCLUDED EXCURSIONS:

FULL DAY TOUR to the waterfront City of Swansea with many parks, gardens, shops, museums and 5 miles of sandy beaches. We then continue our coach journey around the breath-taking Gower Peninsular, taking in wild moors, limestone cliffs, golden, sandy beaches, a geological goldmine of truly inspiring landscapes.

HALF DAY TOUR to the medieval town of Pembroke, a charming walled town with a splendid Norman Castle.

You then have the rest of the day to explore Carmarthen, one of the oldest towns in Wales, with its many attractions including the Roman Fort, nearby remains of an Amphitheatre, perhaps a stroll alongside the serene River Towy or visit the ultramodern St Catherine's Walk Shopping Centre.

FULL DAY TOUR of the dramatic and remote Brecon Beacons

National Park, a wonderful mix of magnificent scenery, spectacular waterfalls, soaring mountains, forests and sparkling rivers.

MONDAY Boarding the coach after breakfast we make our way back to Boston with suitable refreshment stops en-route.
