Package itinerary

FRIDAY With a morning departure from Boston, we begin the journey northwards with a suitable comfort and refreshment stop calling in at Leeds City Centre with lots of independent shops and two shopping centre outlets, the Trinity Centre and the Victoria Centre. Arriving at the hotel to relax and enjoy a pre-dinner glass of bubbly followed by a three course Carvery with coffee in the lounge and live evening entertainment.

FULL DAY To the Victorian Market town of Kendal with its Saturday Market and its mixture of national and independent shops with a selection of interesting antique shops, and traditional Lakeland craft shops with its most famous export being Kendal Mint Cake. Returning back to the hotel for Christmas dinner with all the trimmings followed by coffee and mince pies with live entertainment to complete the evening.

FULL DAY Scenic ride to Keswick situated between the huge bulk of Skiddaw and the gentle beauty of Derwentwater, moving onto Cockermouth which is just outside the boundary of The Lake District National Park the birth place of William Wordsworth.

MONDAY After breakfast it's sadly time to make our way homeward, taking with us many happy memories with friends new and old of our time spent at the Cumbria Grand Hotel.
