Package itinerary

SATURDAY Departing from Lincolnshire we will be calling at the spa town of Buxton in the Peak District arriving at the hotel by late afternoon giving you time to relax before the evening meal.

SUNDAY After breakfast we board the coach for a short journey into Liverpool where you get the day to enjoy at leisure. The City Centre and Albert Dock offer an interesting array of waterfront shops, cafes and museums together with many reminders of the Cities historical past. A good way to visit the sites easily is by buying a 'Hop On Hop Off' City Explorer bus ticket, join the tour at any of the 13 stops and hear the live guide cover everything from the history to the drama of Liverpool. Our coach will then return back to the hotel for your evening meal.

MONDAY After breakfast with everyone on board we head for the historic Roman City of Chester, 2,000 years of history with its remarkable Cathedral featuring Europe's finest example of medieval carvings; the unique 700 years old Rows shopping district; with its complete city walls and the largest Roman Amphitheatre in Britain. Returning back to Lincolnshire with a short comfort stop if required.
