

North Wales

Monday 3rd to
Friday 7th October 2022

Enjoy one of Wales best railways journey and a visit to the fantastic village of Portmeirion. We will be based at the Royal Victoria Hotel, Snowdonia, Llanberis (3**) set in 30 acres of grounds with well-tended formal gardens, ancient woodland and the magnificent ruins of the 12th century Welsh castle, Dolbadarn it's cradled between two Lakes, Llyn Padarn and Lyn Peris and sits at the foot of Mount Snowdon, Wales' highest mountain range and within walking distances of attractions of this pretty village of Llanberis. All bedrooms have private en-suite facilities most with bath and shower with a small number shower only all appointed in a comfortable and modern style, flat screen TV with Freeview, tea/coffee making facilities & hairdryer. There is a lift to all floors, with regular evening entertainment.

5 Days
from £445.00
per person

PACKAGE ITINERARY

MONDAY Picking up at local points we make our way to the hotel with suitable stops en-route, you will be served tea/coffee and biscuits on arrival while the porters take your luggage to your rooms giving you time to relax before your evening meal.

FULL DAY Travel to the Royal town of Caernarfon home to Wales' most famous castle steeped in history, with its narrow street's and stylish waterfront development on the eastern shore of the Menai Strait, opposite the Isle of Anglesey. Transferring to Welsh Highland Railway for a one way journey through the glorious countryside allowing you to experience the outstanding scenery from a comfortable railway carriage pulled by an historic steam engine. Ancient oak woodlands, mountains, rivers and castles, all beckon as you embark on your journey on this award winning railway to Porthmadog.

©VisitBritain - Lee Beel

©VisitBritain - Lee Beel

© Flickr - Tom Parnell

FULL DAY Morning visit to the picturesque seaside resort of Criccieth on the shores of Tremadog Bay, overlooked by an ancient castle tucked into the top of Cardigan Bay. On then to the delightful Italian village of Portmeirion, created to show how a beautiful place could be developed without spoiling its ornate architecture in this beautiful setting, which has served as a location for numerous films and TV programmes. Returning via Blaenau Ffestiniog and the pretty village of Betws-y-Coed which literally means 'sanctuary in the wood'.

FULL DAY Morning visit to the National Slate Museum, re-join the coach for a scenic ride through the Llanberis Pass onto the elegant Victorian seaside town of Llandudno with its wide curving seafont, sandy bay framed between the Great Orme and Little Orme.

FRIDAY Boarding the coach after breakfast, we bid farewell to our hosts and begin the homeward journey back to Lincolnshire with suitable refreshment stops en-route.

This package includes

- ◆ All coach travel
- ◆ Bonding
- ◆ 4 nights bed, breakfast and evening meal
- ◆ Entry to Portmeirion
- ◆ Single train journey on Welsh Highland Railway
- ◆ Twin/Double rooms @ £445.00 per person
- ◆ Single rooms @ £545.00 per person