This magnificent Borders tour takes in the regions rolling hills, glorious rivers and spectacular scenery. We will be based at the historic (*) Peebles Hydro Hotel, in the heart of the beautiful Tweed Valley, you will enjoy classic Scottish dishes made with the best local produce, while taking in the wonderful views from the dining room over the River Tweed. There is a pool, gym, sauna and lift. All rooms are en-suite with tea/coffee making facilities.

Package itinerary

FRIDAY Once on board we make the journey North with suitable comfort stops en-route, arriving at the hotel in time for the evening meal.

INCLUDED EXCURSIONS:

FULL DAY TOUR We take a journey on the recently re-opened Scottish Borders Railway from Tweedbank, travelling through spectacular scenery into Edinburgh city centre. Here you will have free time to visit the many iconic attractions on offer including the Palace of Holyroodhouse, Edinburgh Castle, Arthur's Seat (if you are feeling energetic) or perhaps a City bus tour before catching the train back to Tweedbank to be met by the coach and returned to the hotel.

FULL DAY TOUR Circular coach tour crossing the new Forth Road suspension bridge, the Queensferry Crossing which is due to open in May 2017, to Dunfermline, a large town in Fife with a rich historical heritage and once the Capital of Scotland. We then return via the attractive village of Kincardine and cross the Kincardine Bridge to continue onto the Falkirk Wheel Visitor Centre, a chance to view this magnificent mechanical marvel, the worlds only rotating boat lift, joining the Union Canal and the Forth and Clyde Canal.

HALF DAY SCENIC COACH TOUR OF DRIVER'S CHOICE AND HALF DAY AT LEISURE TO EXPLORE THE PRETTY, UNSPOILT MARKET TOWN OF PEBBLES

Straddling the River Tweed, world famous for its salmon fishing and nestled amongst the rolling Border Hills, an area of outstanding natural beauty. Take a stroll along the timeless High Street, meander in and about the alleyways and medieval closes and enjoy the stunning walkways alongside the River Tweed which have barely changed over the passing centuries.

Departing the hotel after breakfast we make the journey homewards with suitable refreshment stops along the way.
